What is paintless dent removal (PDR)?

Paintless Dent Removal repairs dents and dings on vehicles without affecting the original factory finish. Dings and dents can come from everything from runaway shopping carts to hail storms. Whatever the cause, technicians use specially designed tools to reform body metal back to its original condition.

How long does it take to remove a dent or ding?

Dents and dings can often be repaired in a day or less. Vehicles damaged by hail generally are repaired within two to three days.

Is all PDR the same?
